CIRCUIT RULE 28-2.7

ADDENDUM TO BRIEFS

....

All opening briefs filed in counseled petitions for review of immigration cases must include an addendum comprised of the orders being challenged, including any orders of the immigration court and Board of Immigration Appeals. The addendum shall be separated from the brief by a distinctively colored page.

Purpose of Amendment: To provide the bench with a ready access to documents that are central to review of an immigration case. A slightly different version of the rule has been adopted on an interim basis. The proposed additional language is a companion amendment to the previously circulated proposed modifications to Circuit Rules 17-1 and 30-1.
